BRITISH JOURNAL OF SPECIAL EDUCATION

Three year Index 1987-1989

Compiled by Professor R Gulliford

Published by the National Council for Special Education

ALPHABETICAL INDEX

A

Aitken S. See under Buultjens M.

Andersson E. Siblings of mentally handicapped children and their social relations 15 (1) pp 24-26

Arthur H. INSET issues and whole school policies 16 (1) pp 33-36

Askew H., Thomas D. 'But I wouldn't want to go back' 14 (1) pp 6-9

Attfield R. See under Pardoe J.

B

Bailey C.A. Handwriting: ergonomics, assessment and instruction 15 (2) pp 65-71

Bailey T., Hearn M. Enfield TVEI goes 'special' 15 (1) 27-30

Baker K. The Education Secretary replies (interviewed by Peter M.) 14 (4) pp 156-157

Baker K. More replies from the Education Secretary (interviewed by Peter M.) 15 (1) pp 6-7

Bassett S. See under Woolf M.

Batty P., Moon B., Roaf C. Changing the curriculum at Peers 14 (4) pp 170-171

Bayley J. See under Green F.

Beasley F. See under Upton G.

Betts D. Further education and the 1988 Act 16 (3) pp 123-125

Bickerstaffe A. Microcomputer Software. Micro responses to profound handicap 14 (1) p 30

Bines H. Whole school policies at primary level 16 (2) pp 80-82

Bishop M. Backlash. Disabling the able? 14 (3) p 98

Bond J. See under Lindoe S.

Buchanan H. A comparison of pre-verbal communication at home and at school 15 (4) pp 155-157

Buckingham A. See under Mittler H.

Busby G. IT support for employment 15 (3) p 122

Butcher C. See under Jones A.

Buultjens M., Aitken S. Assessment of vision in multiply impaired children 14 (3) pp 112-114

C

Cameron R., White M. Extending Portage into schools 16 (4) pp 165-168

Carpenter B., Fathers J., Lewis A., Privett R. Integration: the Coleshill experience 15 (3) pp 119-121

Caswell J. See under Portsmouth R.

Clay J., Cooke B., Jotham D., Neale A., Phillips R., Quinton E. Microcomputer Software. NewLink with computers 15 (2) pp 73-75

Clough P., Hinchliffe M. On the periphery of curricular change? 15 (3) pp 107-110

Conway J., Hepworth R. Barnsley responds to the 1981 Act 14 (2) pp 54-57

Cooke B. See under Clay J.

Cooper D. TVEI: across the ability range? 14 (4) pp 147-149

Cooper D. Backlash. Another hurdle for FE. 16 (2) p 57

Cowne E. GCSE: a common exam for all? 14 (4) pp 144-146

D

Daniels H. Misunderstandings, miscues and maths 15 (1) pp 11-13

Daniels H., Porter J., Sandow S. New issues in in-service education 15 (3) pp 127-129

Daniels H., Sandow S. Backlash. Will Circular 6/86 frustrate the 1981 Act? 14 (1) p 10

David R., Smith B. Preparing for collaborative working 14 (1) pp 19-23

Dawson N., McHugh B. Learning to talk to parents 14 (3) pp 119-121

Dawson R., Kierney J. A survey of parents' views 15 (3) pp 123-125

Denley P. See under Jones A.

Dessent T. Editorial. To 'statement' or not to 'statement' 16 (1) p 5

Dick D. YTS: ladder to progress or merely a maze? 14 (4) pp 158-161

Dillon P., Nichols R. Microcomputer Software. Bringing life and energy into schools 14 (3) p 102

Doyle P., Rickman R. LMS: implications for the 18 per cent 16 (2) pp 77-78

Drake A. Microcomputer Software. Creating music with micros 16 (3) p 98

Dunlap W.R., Sands D. Iceman Classification by functional ability for independent living 16 (1) pp 23-26

E

Edwards H. See under Morris C.

Elf B. Use of the touch sensitive screen with children who have special educational needs 15 (3) pp 116-118

Ellis C. See under Swinson J.

Evans B., Simmons K. Exercises in integration 14 (3) pp 115-117

Evans J. See under Wedell K.

Evans P. See under Ware J.

F

Farrar M. Visitors are welcome but ... 14 (2) pp 71-72

Fathers J. See under Carpenter B.

Fish J. Questions we need to ask 14 (3) pp 103-105

Flaxbeard R., Toomey W. No longer deaf to their needs 14 (3) pp 103-105

Florek A. See under Spalding B.

Fluck A. Microcomputer Software. Using computer networks 16 (1) p 14

Flynn A. A summer school in social skills 15 (1) pp 35-38

Flynn A., Meakin M. Support for siblings 16 (1) pp 15-17

Fordham D. Flexibility in the National Curriculum 16 (2) pp 50-52

Fowler P. Microcomputer Software. Using computers in further education 15 (1) p 31

Fowler P. Microcomputer Software. A new IT network for special education 16 (4) p 148

Freshwater K., Leyden G. Limited options: where are leavers now? 16 (1) pp 19-22

G

Galloway D. INSET and the whole-school approach 15 (4) pp 173-175

Garnett J. Support teaching: taking a closer look 15 (1) pp 15-18

Gibb C. See under Randall P.E.

Giles K. Sex education for pupils with severe learning difficulties 14 (3) pp 107-111

Goacher B. See under Wedell K.

Goldthorpe R. See under Smith G.

Green F., Bayley J. How education guidance centres can help 14 (1) pp 31-34

Green P. Records of wider achievement 14 (4) pp 141-143

Grove N. See under Williams M.

H

Hanko G. After Elton - how to 'manage' disruption? 16 (4) pp 140-143

Harland J., Weston P. LAPP: Joseph's coat of many colours 14 (4) pp 150-152

Hearn M. See under Bailey T.

Hegarty S. Supporting the ordinary school 15 (2) pp 50-53

Hepworth R. See under Conway J.

Hewett D. See under Nind M.

Hinchliffe M. See under Clough P.

Hitt M. Scotland's action plan for all 14 (4) pp 162-165

Hopkins D. The new initiatives: an overview 14 (4) pp 137-140

Hornby G. Launching parent to parent schemes 15 (2) pp 77-78

Hornby G. A model for parent participation 16 (4) pp 161-162

Horner J. The music circus comes to school 14 (1) pp 14-15

J

Jeffries K., Pring T. Assessing the effects of teaching a learning disabled child 14 (1) pp 24-26

Jones A., Denley P., Butcher C. Science: access for all pupils 15 (4) pp 151-154

Jones C.F.G. Microcomputer Software. Electronic blackboards or microworlds? 16 (2) p 74

Jotham D. See under Clay J.

K

Kiernan C. Child abuse: a case for change? 15 (4) pp 140-142

Kierney J. See under Dawson R.

L

Lane C. Aiming ARROW at learning targets 14 (3) pp 99-101

Larcombe T. Mathematics: prospects and problems 15 (4) pp 163-166

Leming E. Backlash. Why should Mr Alton decide? 15 (2) p 54

Lewis A. See under Carpenter B.

Leyden G. See under Freshwater K.

Lindoe S., Bond J. Active approaches to social education 14 (1) pp 16-18

Lumb D., Wolff D. 'Mary doesn't talk' 15 (3) pp 103-106

Lysley A. Microcomputer Software. Access to the mainstream 15 (4) p 146

M

Mackay M., Watson J. Games for promoting communication 16 (2) pp 58-61

Maher P. Child abuse: the undetected 'special need' 16 (1) pp 11-13

McConnon S. A programme for pupils' choices 15 (4) pp 147-149

McCoy S. CPVE: a launch for life? 14 (4) pp 153-155

McEvoy J. From counting to arithmetic: the development of early number skills 16 (3) pp 107-110 and p 114

McHugh B. See under Dawson N.

Meakin M. See under Flynn A.

Mittler H., Buckingham A. Getting ready to leave 14 (1) pp 11-13

Moon B. See under Batty P.

Morris C., Edwards H. Writing with a telling purpose 15 (4) pp 167-168

Moseley D. Words you want to learn 14 (2) pp 59-62

N

Neale A. See under Clay J.

Newall M. See under Sugden D.

Nichols R. See under Dillon P.

Nind M., Hewett D. Interaction as curriculum 15 (2) pp 55-57

Norwich B. How should we define exceptions? 16 (3) pp 94-97

O

O'Connor D. Glue sniffers with special needs 14 (3) 94-97

O'Toole B., O'Toole P. How accessible is Level 1 maths? 16 (3) pp 115-117

O'Toole P. See under O'Toole B.

P

Pardoe J., Attfield R. Appraisal: the Salford experience 16 (3) pp 103-105

Peter M. Editorial. A special illusion? 14 (2) p 49

Peter M. Editorial. A National Curriculum? 14 (3) p 93

Peter M. Editorial. Whose initiatives? 14 (4) p 136

Peter M. Editorial. The Education Reform Bill 15 (1) p 5

Peter M. Editorial 15 (2) p 49

Peter M. Editorial. Vigilance as an ERA begins 15 (3) p 97

Peter M. Editorial. Focus on the curriculum 15 (4) p 139

Peter M. National Curriculum: a year's grace? 16 (1) p 18

Peter M. Editorial. Exceptions from the National Curriculum 16 (2) p 49

Peter M. Local management and schools 16 (2) pp 75-76

Peter M. Editorial 16 (3) p 93

Peter M. Editorial 16 (4) p 135

Petrie I. A curriculum for all 16 (4) p 139

Petrie I. See under Williams K.

Phillips C.J. Editorial reflections on the first seven years 15 (2) pp 71-72

Phillips R. See under Clay J.

Porter J. See under Daniels H.

Portsmouth R., Caswell J. Backlash. The myth about 'achieving potential' 15 (1) p 14

Pring T. See under Jeffries K.

Privett R. See under Carpenter B.

Q

Quinton E. See under Clay J.

R

Randall P.E., Gibb C. Structured management and autism 14 (2) pp 68-70

Raybould E.C., Solity J.E. Precision teaching ... and all that! 15 (1) pp 32-33

Raybould E.C., Solity J.E. More questions on precision teaching 15 (2) pp 59-61

Reason R. Evidence of progress? 16 (4) pp 149-152

Reason R. See under Samson A.

Rickman R. See under Doyle P.

Roaf C. See under Batty P.

Robson C. See under Sebba J.

Rodbard P. Design and technology: new directions 16 (3) pp 99-102

Ross M. See under Spencer S.

Roulstone S. The language and communication content of FE courses for students with severe learning difficulties 16 (3) pp 111-114

S

Samson A., Reason R. What is successful re-integration? 15 (1) pp 19-23

Sandow S. See under Daniels H.

Sandow S. See under Daniels H. with Porter J.

Sands D. Iceman See under Dunlap W.R.

Sayer J. Editorial. The 1986 Education Act 14 (1) p 5

Sebba J., Robson C. Evaluating short, school-focused INSET courses in special educational needs 15 (3) pp 111-115

Shuard H. The PrIME project 16 (2) pp 71-73

Simmons K. See under Evans B.

Skinner P. Microcomputer Software. Developing thinking skills 14 (2) p 77

Smedley G. First steps towards the new initiatives 14 (4) pp 167-169

Smith B. See under David R.

Smith G., Goldthorpe R. Returning to the mainstream 15 (4) pp 143-145

Solity J.E. See under Raybould E.C.

Spalding B., Florek A. Backlash. Narrower focus, narrowed chances? 16 (1) p 10

Spencer S., Ross M. Assessing functional vision using microcomputers 16 (2) pp 68-70

Stevenson H. Backlash. Prejudice against disabled teachers? 14 (2) p 58

Stratford R. Helping schools to solve problems 14 (3) pp 123-126

Straw J. Backlash. A threat to stability 14 (4) p 166

Sugden D., Newall M. Teaching transfer strategies to children 14 (2) pp 63-67

Swann W. Backlash. Integration? Look twice at statistics 15 (3) p 102

Swann W. Backlash. Appealing against the system 16 (4) p 144

Swinson J., Ellis C. Telling stories to encourage language 15 (4) pp 169-171

T

Thomas D. See under Askew H.

Thomas N. The National Curriculum: primary issues 15 (1) pp 8-10

Tomlinson S. Asian pupils and special issues 16 (3) pp 119-122

Toomey W. See under Flaxbeard R.

Tunnicliffe S. Dale Science materials for special needs 14 (2) pp 73-75

U

Upton G., Beasley F. More by accident than design? 16 (1) pp 27-30

W

Wade B. English: half way there 16 (1) pp 6-9

Walsh B. English: Key Stages 2 to 4 16 (4) pp 145-147

Ware J., Evans P. Room management is not enough? 14 (2) pp 78-80

Watson J. One-year courses: the teachers' views 15 (2) pp 79-82

Watson J. See under Mackay M.

Wedell K., Welton J., Evans J., Goacher B. Policy and provision under the 1981 Act 14 (2) pp 50-53

Wedell K. The new Act: a special need for vigilance 15 (3) pp 98-101

Wells I. Parents and education for severe learning difficulties 16 (4) pp 153-160

Welton J. See under Wedell K.

Weston P. See under Harland J.

White M. See under Cameron R.

Widlake P. When parents become partners 14 (1) pp 27-29

Wiles P. Teaching children in hospital 15 (4) pp 158-162

Willey M. LMS: a rising sense of alarm 16 (4) pp 136-138

Williams K., Petrie I. Teacher appraisal in special schools 16 (2) pp 53-56

Williams M., Grove N. Getting to grips with aided communication: an overview of the literature 16 (2) pp 63-68

Wolff D. See under Lumb D.

Woolf M., Bassett S. How classroom assistants respond 15 (2) pp 62-64

SUBJECT INDEX

1.
LEGISLATION, POLITICS, GOVERNMENT ACTION

THE 1981 ACT

Backlash. Will Circular 6/86 frustrate the 1981 Act? Daniels H., Sandow S. 14 (1) p 10

Policy and provision under the 1981 Act Wedell K., Welton J., Evans J., Goacher B. 14 (2) pp 50-53

Barnsley responds to the 1981 Act Conway J., Hepworth R. 14 (2) pp 54-57

Editorial. To 'statement' or not to 'statement'? Dessent T. 16 (1) p 5

Editorial Peter, M. 16 (4) p 135

THE 1986 ACT

Editorial. The 1986 Education Act Sayer J. 14 (1) p 5

THE EDUCATION REFORM ACT 1988

Editorial. A National Curriculum? Peter M. 14 (3) p 93

Editorial. Whose initiatives? Peter M. 14 (4) p 136

The Education Secretary replies (interviewed by Peter M.) Baker K. 14 (4) pp 156-157

Backlash. A threat to stability Straw J. 14 (4) p 166

Editorial. The Education Reform Bill Peter M. 15 (1) p 5

More replies from the Education Secretary (interviewed by Peter M.) Baker K. 15 (1) pp 6-7

Editorial. Vigilance as an ERA begins Peter M. 15 (3) p 97

The new Act: a special need for vigilance Wedell K. 15 (3) pp 98-101

Editorial. Focus on the curriculum Peter M. 15 (4) p 139

Further education and the 1988 Act Betts D. 16 (3) pp 123-125

THE NATIONAL CURRICULUM

The National Curriculum: primary issues Thomas N. 15 (1) p 8-10

Science: access for all pupils Jones A., Denley P., Butcher C. 15 (4) pp 151-154

Mathematics: prospects and problems Larcombe T. 15 (4) pp 163-166

English: half way there Wade B. 16 (1) pp 6-9

Backlash. Narrower Focus, narrowed chances? Spalding B., Florek A. 16 (1) p 10

National Curriculum: a year's grace? Peter M. 16 (1) p 18

Teacher appraisal in special schools Williams K., Petrie I. 16 (2) pp 53-56

Flexibility in the National Curriculum Fordham D. 16 (2) pp 50-52

Local management and schools Peter M. 16 (2) pp 75-76

LMS: implications for the 18 per cent Doyle P., Rickman R. 16 (2) pp 77-78

How should we define exceptions? Norwich B. 16 (3) pp 94-97

Design and technology: new directions Rodbard P. 16 (3) pp 99-102

How accessible is Level 1 maths? O'Toole B., O'Toole P. 16 (3) pp 115-117

Editorial.Peter M. 16 (4) p 135

LMS: a rising sense of alarm Willey M. 16 (4) pp 136-138

A curriculum for all Petrie I. 16 (4) p 139

English: Key Stages 2 to 4 Walsh B. 16 (4) pp 145-147

Evidence of progress? Reason R. 16 (4) pp 149-152

2.
LOCAL MANAGEMENT OF SCHOOLS

Local management and schools Peter M. 16 (2) pp 75-76

LMS: implications for the 18 per cent Doyle P., Rickman R. 16 (2) pp 77-78

LMS: a rising sense of alarm Willey M. 16 (4) pp 136-138

3.
TYPES OF SPECIAL NEED

EMOTIONAL AND BEHAVIOURAL DIFFICULTIES

How educational guidance centres can help Green F., Bayley J. 14 (1) pp 31-34

Learning to talk to parents Dawson N., McHugh B. 14 (3) pp 119-121

Helping schools to solve problems Stratford R. 14 (3) pp 123-126

A summer school in social skills Flynn A. 15 (1) pp 35-38

A programme for pupils' choices McConnon S. 15 (4) pp 147-149

LEARNING DIFFICULTIES: MILD AND/OR MODERATE

Assessing the effects of teaching a learning disabled child Jeffries K., Pring T. 14 (1) pp 24-26

Words you want to learn Moseley D. 14 (2) pp 59-62

Teaching transfer strategies to children Sugden D., Newall M. 14 (2) pp 63-67

Aiming ARROW at learning targets Lane C. 14 (3) pp 99-101

A survey of parents' views Dawson R., Kierney J. 15 (3) pp 123-125

Writing with a telling purpose Morris C., Edwards H. 15 (4) 167-168

Limited options: where are leavers now? Freshwater K., Leyden G. 16 (1) pp 19-22

More by accident than design? Upton G., Beasley F. 16 (1) pp 27-30

LEARNING DIFFICULTIES: SEVERE

Microcomputer Software. Micro responses to profound handicap Bickerstaffe A. 14 (1) p 30

Room management is not enough? Ware J., Evans R. 14 (2) pp 78-80

Sex education for pupils with severe learning difficulties Giles K. 14 (3) 107-111

Siblings of mentally handicapped children and their social relations Andersson E. 15 (1) pp 24-26

Interaction as curriculum Nind M., Hewett D. 15 (2) pp 55-57

Integration: the Coleshill experience Carpenter B., Fathers J., Lewis A., Privett R. 15 (3) pp 119-121

Telling stories to encourage language Swinson J. Ellis C. 15 (4) pp 169-171

Use of the touch sensitive screen with children who have special educational needs Elf B. 15 (3) pp 116-118

Support for siblings Flynn A., Meakin M. 16 (1) pp 15-17

Games for promoting communication Mackay M., Watson J. 16 (2) pp 58-61

LEARNING DIFFICULTIES: VARIOUS

Structured management and autism Randall P.E., Gibb C. 14 (2) pp 68-70

Glue sniffers with special needs O'Connor D. 14 (3) pp 94-97

'Mary doesn't talk' Lumb D., Wolff D. 15 (3) pp 103-106

Teaching children in hospital Wiles P. 15 (4) pp 158-162

Child abuse: a case for change? Kiernan C. 15 (4) pp 140-142

Child abuse: the undetected 'special need' Maher P. 16 (1) pp 11-13

Asian pupils and special issues Tomlinson S. 16 (3) pp 119-122

SENSORY HANDICAPS: HEARING

No longer deaf to their needs Flaxbeard R., Toomey W. 14 (3) pp 103-105

SENSORY HANDICAPS: VISION

Assessment of vision in multiply impaired children Buultjens M., Aitken S. 14 (3) pp 112-114

Assessing functional vision using microcomputers Spencer S., Ross M. 16 (2) pp 68-70

4.
ASSESSMENT, CATEGORISATION, EVALUATION

Assessing the effects of teaching a learning disabled child Jeffries K., Pring T. 14 (1) pp 24-26

How education guidance centres can help Green F., Bayley J. 14 (1) pp 31-34

Assessment of vision in multiply impaired children Buultjens M., Aitken S. 14 (3) pp 112-114

Records of wider achievement Green P. 14 (4) pp 141-143

GCSE: a common exam for all? Cowne E. 14 (4) pp 144-146

Backlash. The myth about 'achieving potential' Portsmouth R., Caswell J. 15 (1) p 14

Precision teaching ... and all that! Raybould E.C., Solity J.E. 15 (1) pp 32-33

Editorial Peter M. 15 (2) p 49

More questions on precision teaching Raybould E.C., Solity J.E. 15 (2) pp 59-61

Handwriting: ergonomics, assessment and instruction Bailey C.A. 15 (2) pp 65-71

A comparison of pre-verbal communication Buchanan H. 15 (4) pp 155-157

Classification by functional ability for independent living Dunlap W.R., Sands D. Iceman 16 (1) pp 23-26

Assessing functional vision using microcomputers Spencer S., Ross M. 16 (2) pp 68-70

Evidence of progress? Reason R. 16 (4) pp 149-152

5.
EDUCATIONAL ORGANISATION

INTEGRATION

'But I wouldn't want to go back' Askew H., Thomas D. 14 (1) pp 6-9

Exercises in integration Evans B., Simmons K. 14 (3) pp 115-117

Editorial. The Education Reform Bill Peter M. 15 (1) p 5

What is successful re-integration? Samson A., Reason R. 15 (1) pp 19-23

Backlash. Integration? Look twice at the statistics Swann W. 15 (3) p 102

Integration: the Coleshill experience Carpenter B., Fathers J., Lewis A., Privett R. 15 (3) pp 119-121

A survey of parents' views Dawson R., Kierney J. 15 (3) pp 123-125

INSET and the whole-school approach Galloway D. 15 (4) pp 173-175

Returning to the mainstream Smith G., Goldthorpe R. 15 (4) pp 143-145

Microcomputer Software. Access to the mainstream Lysley A. 15 (4) p 146

More by accident than design? Upton G., Beasley F. 16 (1) pp 27-30

Whole school policies at primary level Bines H. 16 (2) pp 80-82

HOSPITALS

Teaching children in hospital Wiles P. 15 (4) pp 158-162

6. THE CURRICULUM

1. CRAFT, DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGY

Design and technology: new directions Rodbard P. 16 (3) pp 99-102

2. LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION

Words you want to learn Moseley D. 14 (2) pp 59-62

Handwriting: ergonomics, assessment and instruction Bailey C.A. 15 (2) pp 65-71

'Mary doesn't talk' Lumb D., Wolff D. 15 (3) pp 103-106

A comparison of pre-verbal communication at home and at school Buchanan H. 15 (4) pp 155-157

Writing with a telling purpose Morris C., Edwards H. 15 (4) pp 167-168

Telling stories to encourage language Swinson J., Ellis C. 15 (4) pp 169-171

English: half way there Wade B. 16 (1) pp 6-9

Games for promoting communication Mackay M., Watson J. 16 (2) pp 58-61

Getting to grips with aided communication: an overview of the literature Williams M., Grove N. 16 (2) pp 63-68

The language and communication content of FE courses Roulstone S. 16 (3) pp 111-114

English: Key Stages 2 to 4 Walsh B. 16 (4) pp 145-147

3. MATHEMATICS

Misunderstandings, miscues and maths Daniels H. 15 (1) pp 11-13

Mathematics: prospects and problems Larcombe T. 15 (4) pp 163-166

The PrIME project Shuard H. 16 (2) pp 71-73

How accessible is Level 1 maths? O'Toole B., O'Toole P. 16 (3) pp 115-117

4. MUSIC

The music circus comes to school Horner J. 14 (1) pp 14-15

Microcomputer Software. Creating music with micros Drake A. 16 (3) p 98

5. PERSONAL, SOCIAL AND SEX EDUCATION

Active approaches to social education Lindoe S., Bond J. 14 (1) pp 16-18

Sex education for pupils with severe learning difficulties Giles K. 14 (3) pp 107-111

A summer school in social skills Flynn A. 15 (1) pp 35-38

A programme for pupils' choices McConnon S. 15 (4) pp 147-149

6. SCIENCE

Science materials for special needs Tunnicliffe S. Dale 14 (2) pp 73-75

Microcomputer Software. Bring life and energy into schools Dillon P., Nichols R. 14 (3) p 102

Science: access for all pupils Jones A., Denley P., Butcher C. 15 (4) pp 151-154

7. SPECIAL 14-19 INITIATIVES, VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Getting ready to leave Mittler H., Buckingham A. 14 (1) pp 11-13

Editorial. Whose initiatives? Peter M. 14 (4) p 136

The new initiatives: an overview Hopkins D. 14 (4) pp 137-140

GCSE: a common exam for all? Cowne E. 14 (4) pp 144-146

TVEI: across the ability range? Cooper D. 14 (4) pp 147-149

LAPP: Joseph's coat of many colours Harland J., Weston P. 14 (4) pp 150-152

CPVE: a launch for life? McCoy S. 14 (4) pp 153-155

YTS: ladder to progress or merely a maze? Dick D. 14 (4) pp 158-161

Scotland's action plan for all Hitt M. 14 (4) pp 162-165

First steps towards the new initiatives Smedley G. 14 (4) pp 167-169

Enfield TVEI goes 'special' Bailey T., Hearn M. 15 (1) pp 27-30

7. RESOURCES

Microcomputer Software. Micro responses to profound handicap Bickerstaffe A. 14 (1) p 30

Microcomputer Software. Developing thinking skills Skinner P. 14 (2) p 77

Microcomputer Software. Bringing life and energy into schools Dillon P., Nichols R. 14 (3) p 102

Microcomputer Software. Using computers in further education Fowler P. 15 (1) p 31

NewLink with computers Clay J., Cooke B., Jotham D., Neale A., Phillips R., Quinton E. 15 (2) pp 73-75

Use of the touch sensitive screen with children who have special educational needs Elf B. 15 (3) pp 116-118

Microcomputer Software. IT support for employment Busby G. 15 (3) p 122

Microcomputer Software. Access to the mainstream Lysley A. 15 (4) p 146

Microcomputer Software. Using computer networks Fluck A. 16 (1) p 14

Microcomputer Software. Electronic blackboards or microworlds? Jones C.F.G. 16 (2) p 74

Assessing functional vision using microcomputers Spencer S., Ross M. 16 (2) pp 68-70

Microcomputer Software. Creating music with micros Drake A. 16 (3) p 98

Microcomputer Software. A new IT network for special education Fowler P. 15 (4) p 148

8. FAMILY AND SOCIAL PROBLEMS: PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

When parents become partners Widlake P. 14 (1) pp 27-29

Learning to talk to parents Dawson N., McHugh B. 14 (3) pp 119-121

Backlash. Why should Mr Alton decide? Leming E. 15 (2) p 54

Launching parent to parent schemes Hornby G. 15 (2) pp 77-78

Parents and education for severe learning difficulties Wells I. 16 (4) pp 153-160

A model for parent participation Hornby G. 16 (4) pp 161-162

9.
THE PROFESSIONS INVOLVED

TRAINING

Backlash. Will Circular 6/86 frustrate the 1981 Act? Daniels H., Sandow S. 14 (1) p 10

One year courses: the teachers' views Watson J. 15 (2) pp 79-82

Evaluating short, school-focused INSET courses in special educational needs Sebba J., Robson C. 15 (3) pp 111-115

On the periphery of curricular change? Clough P., Hinchliffe M. 15 (3) pp 107-110

New issues in in-service education Daniels H., Porter J., Sandow S. 15 (3) pp 127-129

INSET and the whole-school approach Galloway D. 15 (4) pp 173-175

INSET issues and whole school policies Arthur H. 16 (1) pp 33-36

Teacher appraisal in special schools Williams K., Petrie I. 16 (2) pp 53-56

Appraisal: the Salford experience Pardoe J., Attfield R. 16 (3) pp 103-105

COLLABORATION

Preparing for collaborative working David R., Smith B. 14 (1) pp 19-23

Backlash. Prejudice against disabled teachers? Stevenson H. 14 (2) p 58

Visitors are welcome but ... Farrar M. 14 (2) pp 71-72

Room management is not enough? Ware J., Evans P. 14 (2) pp 78-80

Questions we need to ask Fish J. 14 (4) pp 172-174

Support teaching: taking a closer look Garnett J. 15 (1) pp 15-18

Supporting the ordinary school Hegarty S. 15 (2) pp 50-53

How classroom assistants respond Woolf M., Bassett S. 15 (2) pp 62-64